

Monthly Thai Regional Economic Report October 2016

"The private consumption in October 2016 was satisfactory rate. While, agricultural product and income from visitors continued to expand. All of them were the key factors to support the regional economy"

The North:: supported by capital expenditure and agriculture sectors

Demand Side:: supported by capital expenditure and private investment in equipment and machinery

Supply Side:: agriculture sector is the key factor. While, tourism sector remained declined

+13.7% -13.6%

The Northeast:: increased by consumption capital expenditure and agriculture sectors

Demand Side:: consumption and capital expenditure was the main supporter

Е

Supply Side:: supported by agriculture and tourism sectors from expansion in the number of visitors

+0.1%

The Central:: consumption and agriculture sectors

were the key driven factor

Demand Side:: improving in private consumption and consumer's confidence

Supply Side:: agriculture sector improved and tourism sectors continued to grow

The East:: driven by consumption, capital expenditure and tourism sectors

> Demand Side:: consumption and capital expenditure continually ascent

Bangkok and Vicinities:: Consumption and agriculture sectors

Supply Side:: tourism sector continued to grow in the number of visitors and income from visitors. While. farm income level also increased

+84.6% +22.1%

The West:: driven by consumption, agriculture and tourism sectors

Demand Side:: expanded owing to consumption which was the main supporter

+3.3% +0.6%

Supply Side::

BKK

The number of visitors and income from visitors increased. While, agriculture sector showed an improving sign

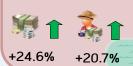

The South:: supported by consumption, agriculture and tourism sectors

Demand Side:: An expansion of consumption was the key factor to support the Supply Side:: agriculture sector continued to rise as well as tourism sector were the key Demand Side:: factors Private consumption, particularly in durable goods expanded

Supply Side:: agriculture sector indicated a positive sign from higher agricultural product and farm income level

motorcucle

onfidence

Capital

